Citizens Police Academy

Savannah-Chatham Metropolitan Police Department's Citizens Police Academy is a thirteen week program designed to allow the residents of our community to informally interact with the members of the police department and the local criminal justice system. Participants will meet officers from each unit of Savannah-Chatham Police who will explain the how and why of what they do and will feature speakers from various agencies with whom they interact.

Highlights of the program have been the tour of the 911 Center, Chatham County Jail, Firearms/Tactical Training, Traffic Stop role playing and an opportunity to do a ride-a-long with a patrol officer.

The class meets on Thursday nights from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Savannah-Chatham Police Department Squad Room, 201 Habersham Street. The next class starts Thursday, September 10, 2015. Registration is $10 for the 14-week course. Only checks or money orders will be accepted – no cash please. For an application, visit a Precinct near you or call Gianna Nelson at 651-2246. For those with access to the Internet, an application can be found on the SCMPD website, www.scmpd.org. Please make sure your application is signed and notarized. Applicants can turn in the application at any precinct or the Police Barracks at Habersham and Oglethorpe Streets.

Graduates will receive a certificate of completion for Savannah Chatham Metropolitan Police Department and will be eligible to apply to the Volunteers in Policing Program if they want to support SCMPD through volunteering efforts.

Application deadline is Friday, September 4, 2015
